INTRODUCTION. Village Racquet Club Association is a condominium residential community of 140 condominium units and many families living closely together on relatively small acreage. Your decision to live in such a development with its many advantages signifies a willingness to forego the relatively complete freedom of action possible in a private dwelling. That willingness implies an obligation to respect your neighbor's rights, to modify your own habits and actions, to preclude encroachment and to be tolerant of your neighbors.

In order to ensure a uniform and harmonious community, the Association has adopted these Rules and Regulations, pursuant to its Declaration of Covenants, Conditions, Restrictions and Reservation of Easements ("CC&Rs"); Bylaws; Articles of Incorporation; these Rules and Regulations; any architectural standards (hereinafter, collectively "Governing Documents") and as permitted by California law. This document is presented to all Members as part of the Association's Governing Documents, so that we can all enjoy living in a pleasant environment with friendly neighbors and to maintain the beauty and value of our common areas.

PURPOSE. These Rules and Regulations have been adopted by the Board of Directors with the intent of preserving the peaceful enjoyment of Association amenities for all Members. Your voluntary compliance with all the Governing Documents will promote an overall benefit for all. These Rules and Regulations may be amended at any time by the Board of Directors and supersede any previously adopted Rules and Regulations. Do not assume you know the rules. Many have been changed over the years, or modified or amended since this booklet was last published. Please read this document carefully, and make sure that copies of it are kept in your Village Racquet Club unit and made available to your guests and tenants.
